Blood Donation Project

Introduction:-

Blood Donation is a definitely a noble act. Many clinics and hospitals constantly require blood for several purposes. This makes the idea of Blood donation a noble gesture as it provides lifesaving help to people and patients. On an average, human body contains approximately 4 to 5 liters blood that can be donated after every third month for men and every 4 months for women. Many people believe that blood donations is harmful for their body, however this is untrue.

A blood donation occurs when a person voluntarily has blood drawn and used for transfusions and/or made into biopharmaceutical medications by a process called fractionation (separation of whole blood components). Donation may be of whole or of specific components directly. Blood banks often participate in the collection. Process as well as the procedure that follow it.

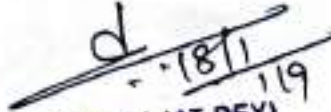

Today in the developed world, most blood donors are unpaid volunteers who donate blood for a community supply. In some countries, established supplies are limited and donors usually give blood when family or friends need a transfusion. Many donors donate as act of charity, but in countries that allow paid donation some donors are paid, and in some cases there are incentives other than money such as paid time off from work. Donors can also have blood drawn for their own future use. Donating is relatively safe, but some donors have bruising where the needle is inserted or may feel faint.

The amount of blood drawn and the methods vary. The collection can be done manually or with automated equipment that takes only specific components of blood used for transfusions have a short shelf life, and maintaining a constant supply is a persistent problem. This has led to some increased interest in auto transfusion, where by a patient's blood is salvaged during surgery for continuous reinfusion – or alternatively, is "self – donated" prior to when it will be needed.

Importance of Blood Donation:-

We cannot deny the fact that blood donation is a good act. It is not merely safe but also has several advantages.

Life Saver:- Many people require urgent blood and by donating our blood we easily give them life. This is one of the biggest satisfactions one can experience. It makes us proud and can also give us a purpose of life-the feeling that you made a difference to someone's life.

(DR. RAJAT DEY)
Principal
Bhavan's Tripura College of Teacher Education

Refreshes our system: - Having donated blood, our cell count goes down which leads to new cells regeneration. This is definitely a healthy process that defines that an individual is fine and fit. Our entire body freshens up and many of our health issues come to an end. Therefore, blood donation results in a healthier body that raises our life span.

Rise of quantity of blood: - Blood isn't merely needed in case of injuries or accidents but also for plasma or platelets required by a patient. In such cases, if adequate amount of blood is readily available in a blood bank patients can be smoothly treated. Hence people should regularly donate blood to ensure an adequate availability of it for the needy at right time.

Proper diagnosis: - Prior to our donating blood, hospital personnel make necessary diagnosis of cholesterol, iron content, hemoglobin, etc. Hence we can identify if all is normal, if all is well, the doctor allows us to donate blood.

Activity:-

- 1)Chief Guest:-Swami Samsiddhananda Maharaj.
