Preface of instructional materials

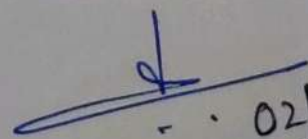

Instructional materials are those materials used by a teacher to simplify their teaching. They include both visual and audio visual aids & could either be concrete or non concrete. These instructional materials bring life to learning by stimulating students to learn.

These include the lectures, readings, textbooks, multimedia components, and other resources in a course. Qualities of effective instructional materials are clearly stated-

1. Appropriate to the level of the course.
2. Relevant to the content of the course.
3. Appropriate to the role of the course in the major, concentration and/ or general education curriculum
4. Appropriately sequenced.

Objectives of Instructional materials

1. To help the teacher and learners avoid overemphasis on recitation and rote learning that can easily dominate a lesson.
2. To allow learners to have practical experiences which help them to develop skills and concepts and to work in various way. The implication here is that for more knowledge to be internalized, more of the learner's senses have to be stimulated other than hearing alone. In learning and teaching, the various senses can be stimulated through the use of audio-visual materials.
3. To internalize more knowledge.
4. To stimulate learner's senses.

Conclusion

Each teaching aid has its own characteristics and function.. Some teaching aids are more effective than others. So the teacher should be careful to choose the most appropriate aid that best serve the teaching purpose. Teaching aids are corner stones in the teaching process which help conduce to the improvement of teaching and learning , using suitable teaching aids empowers teachers to cultivate interest in students.

*“ A GOOD AID IS LIKE A WINDOW,
IT SHOULD NOT CALL ATTENTION TO IT SELF.
IT SHOULD JUST LET IN THE LIGHT “.*
