Report on 'Sirisiti' (A Northeast Community Festival)

Introduction

The name 'Sirisiti' is a Northeast community based festival celebrated by Bhavan's Tripura College of Teacher Education on 10th December 2021 at college campus (playground). The programme was set on mainly ten northeast community tribes like Tripuri, Reang, Chakma, Lusai, Santal, Munda, Assamese, Manipuri, Kuki, and Mog. We have selected seven students for each group. The selected students were present the respective tribe's banner, costume, art & crafts, cultural activities and foods. College play ground was richly decorated with flowers, flags, and different colorful banner.

Objectives of the Programme

The main objective of this programme is too familiar with the tradition of northeast community tribes. As we know, North East India comprises of seven states commonly known as the "Seven Sisters". They are Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Manipur, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Nagaland and Tripura. From times immemorial, India's North East has been the meeting point of many communities, faiths and cultures. To celebrate this type of festival everyone can gather various knowledge and idea about the tradition and culture of Northeast tribes.

Importance of the Programme

Festivals are an expressive way to celebrate glorious heritage, culture and traditions. The festivals and celebrations in the North-eastern states of India are a colorful reflection of the people and their lives. Throughout the year, different people celebrate festivals with lot of fanfare in different ways. After joining in this programme everyone were familiar with their costume, their tradition, their music, their food etc.etc.

Programme Details

The programme began with lighting a lamp by Dr. Rajat Dey, Principal of Bhavan's Tripura college of Teacher Education and our honorable Guests Sri Rameshwar Bhattacharjee and Sri Narendra Debbarma. After felicitation of our Guests opening song were sung by the trainees in both Bengali and Kokborok Language (Eso Eso Amar Ghore). At first our respected Principal delivered a welcome address and after that our Chief Guest Sri Narendra Debbarma and our Special Guest Sri Rameshwar Bhattacharjee delivered their valuable speech. Next, one by one all the members selected for each group was present their activities of their respective group. Every performance was very attractive and so colorful. After observing all the performance our honorable Guest were visit their stall to observe their banner, art & crafts, and foods etc.etc. When they visited in stalls one by one, all the participants were welcome them with their traditional 'Risha', 'Gamcha' and 'Cap' and also introduced all the present things of their stall. Our honorable guests were observed the entire stall and put the marks on their observation sheet. In the ten Community, Manipuri earn the first position, Assamese earn the second position and the third position earns the Tripuri community. The programme has end with prize giving ceremony and a great photo session.

Preface:

The book fair organized by Bhavan's Tripura College of Teachers Education was a vibrant and enriching event that brought together book enthusiasts, educators, students, and the local community. Held on 23rd JUNE 2023, from 12.00 noon to 4<sup>pm</sup>, the fair aimed to promote a love for reading and provide a platform for various publishers, authors, and bookstores to showcase their literary creations.

Venue and Setup:

The book fair took place within the college premises (Multipurpose Hall No.-2), providing a convenient location for both students and visitors. The organizers creatively arranged the fair's setup, with stalls categorized age group, and subject matter. This arrangement allowed attendees to explore their preferred reading material easily.

Objectives of the Book Fair

- 1. Promote Reading Culture: The primary objective of this book fair is to encourage a reading culture among students and the local community. It provides an opportunity for people to explore various books and genres, fostering a love for reading.
- 2. Educational Enrichment: The book fair can serve as an educational platform, allowing students and educators to access a wide range of academic and reference materials that can enhance their learning experience.
- 3. Professional Development: The book fair organized by BTC TE may also focus on professional development by offering books related to teaching methodologies, educational theories, and other resources that can help educators improve their teaching skills.
- 4. Networking and Collaboration: The event can facilitate networking opportunities among students, educators, and publishers, leading to potential collaborations and partnerships for educational initiatives.
- 5. Showcasing Publications: The book fair provides a platform for publishers to showcase their latest publications and interact directly with their target audience.

Report on Campus Bazar

Organized by

IQAC in collaboration with Alumni Association

Introduction:

This report provides an overview of the Campus Bazaar and Alumni Meet held on 26th April, 2023 at Multipurpose Hall-2 in College Campus. The event aimed to create a vibrant platform for students, faculty, staff, and alumni to connect, engage, and celebrate entrepreneurship. The event featured various food stalls, Ornaments Stall, Traditional Dresses, Photo Gallery, Art & Crafts, Sapling Stall and Many more. In this event the chief guest was Sri Debashis Chakraborty, Chairman of Bhavan's Agartala Kendra and Prof P. Bhattacharya of TIT was invited as guest of honour. The Programme campus bazaar was inaugurated at 12:00 noon by the chief guest along with Principal of College Dr Rajat Dey, Convener of Programme Mr. Suman Gupta and other dignitaries. Students of B.Ed 2nd & 4th Semester as well as D.El.Ed 1st year actively Participated. Students from other educational institutions also participated such as Holy Cross College and IASE Govt B.Ed College.

Objectives:

The primary objectives of the Campus Bazaar and Alumni Meet were as follows:

- a. Promote entrepreneurship: Provide students with an opportunity to showcase their entrepreneurial skills and encourage innovation and creativity in a supportive environment.
- b. Foster alumni engagement: Establish a strong bond between the institution and its alumni, promoting lifelong connections and mutual support for the growth and development of both alumni and current students.
- c. Encourage networking: Facilitate networking opportunities between students, alumni, and participants from other educational institutions to exchange ideas, build connections, and explore potential collaborations.
- d. Celebrate diversity: Highlight the institution's commitment to inclusivity and diversity by welcoming participants from various educational institutions and offering a wide range of food stalls representing different cultures and cuisines.

Activities:

The event encompassed a range of activities designed to engage participants and create a lively atmosphere:

- a. Food Stalls: A dedicated area was set up with a variety of food stalls offering diverse cuisines. This provided students, alumni, and participants from other educational institutions with a unique culinary experience and a chance to explore different tastes and flavors.
- b. Student Entrepreneurship Showcase: Students were given the opportunity to showcase their entrepreneurial skills by setting up their own stalls. They displayed a wide range of products, including handmade crafts, artwork, fashion accessories, and innovative technology solutions.

c. Alumni Interaction Sessions: Alumni from different industries and fields were invited to interact with students and share their experiences, insights, and career journeys. These sessions allowed students to gain valuable guidance, mentorship, and inspiration from successful alumni.

d. Networking and Collaboration: Structured networking sessions were organized to encourage interaction between students, alumni, and participants from other educational institutions. Participants had the chance to connect, exchange ideas, and explore potential collaborations in various fields of interest.

e. Cultural Performances: To celebrate diversity and foster a sense of community, cultural performances such as music and dance, were presented by students, alumni, and participants. These performances added vibrancy and entertainment to the event.

Attendance:

The Campus Bazaar and Alumni Meet witnessed a significant turnout, with approximately 235 of students, 10 of alumni, 29 of faculty and staff members, and 112 of participants from other educational institutions. The diverse representation of attendees created a dynamic and enriching environment for everyone involved.

Impact:

The event had a positive impact on various stakeholders:

a. Students: The Campus Bazaar provided students with a practical platform to showcase their entrepreneurial talents, enhance their business skills, and gain hands-on experience in marketing, sales, and customer interaction. The alumni interactions and networking sessions opened doors for mentorship, internships, and potential career opportunities.

b. Alumni: The event allowed alumni to reconnect with their alma mater and fellow graduates. They had the opportunity to contribute to the growth and development of current students by sharing their expertise and providing guidance. The event fostered a sense of pride and loyalty among alumni, further strengthening their connection with the institution.

c. Faculty and Staff: The Campus Bazaar and Alumni Meet showcased the institution's commitment to fostering an entrepreneurial spirit and providing a supportive environment for students. It highlighted the dedication and efforts.

Conclusion:

The Campus Bazaar and Alumni Meet at college successfully achieved its objectives of promoting entrepreneurship, fostering alumni engagement, encouraging networking, and celebrating diversity which was prescribed by MGNCRE. The event provided students with an opportunity to showcase their entrepreneurial skills, learn from accomplished alumni, and connect with participants from other educational institutions. The wide range of food stalls added an element of excitement and cultural exchange to the event.

Month: April, 2023.

Theme: Water.

Activity Chosen: S. No: Quiz on 'Famous Rivers, Oceans and other water bodies of the country'.

Quiz competitions are always interesting and informative, which provide excitement among the students. Today, on 28th April, 2023, BTCET has conducted a Quiz contest taking the interested students of both B. Ed and D. El. Ed programme on the topic 'Famous Rivers, Oceans and other water bodies of the country'.

The main objective of this event was to make them aware of recent general knowledge related to water. The Quiz had three rounds and one bonus round. Rules and regulations of the Quiz were explained at the beginning. Three-round includes objectives, Direct answers and Audio-Visual Round, which engaged the students for one and half an hour. It was very informative and knowledge enriching competition for the participants. The programme ended with Prize giving ceremony.
